Surgical Dressings Section Completed.

The regular meeting of the surgical dressings section was held Thursday afternoon, Feb. 11, in the Congregational vestry, with an attendance of 25. Two more large boxes of finished work were packed and shipped to headquarters. The boxes contained about 582 absorbent pads, over 1,000 yards of bandages, stuffed pillow cases, T. bandages, etc. These make six large boxes sent in from this section. A complimentary letter has been received by the president, Mrs. O. W. Follett, from the superintendent of the section work, saying that a larger amount of finished work in proportion to the population had been received from this section than from any other and expressing appreciation of the excellence of their work. Another large supply of finished bandages, etc., has been received from West Townsend and a sample kit has been sent to Windham, as the women there wish to take up the work. The next meeting of the section will be held in the Baptist vestry Thursday afternoon, Feb. 18.

News has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Heng of New Haven, Ct., are expecting in the birth of a son.

Two other fingers being hooked a little. The wound was cared for by Dr. F. L. Osgood and is doing well. Mr. Morley is boarding at Mrs. Alma Cummings's in Harmonyville.

The mill men have returned to the mill on the Greenwood farm. The crank shaft, which was sent away some time ago for repairs, was returned to this station C. O. D., making the expense so great that Rex Lyman, the mill owner, at first refused to accept it, but on finding that the expense of procuring another would be even larger he had it put in place.

An extra meeting of West River Grange was held Friday evening with an attendance of about 15. The third and fourth degrees were exemplified on the completed A. business committee was appointed by the master for the ensuing year, including Dr. F. L. Osgood, Mrs. A. W. Barry and Mrs. H. P. Six members of Birchard Woman's Relief corps from this village attended the regular meeting of the corps at the home of Mrs. Polly Ballou in Newfane Saturday afternoon. Fifteen members were present. Letters were read by the secretary, Mrs. L. W. Birch, from Emily H. Marsden, department president, also from Alice B. White, department press correspondent, giving instruction and encouragement for the coming year. A vote was taken to hold the Newfane meeting hereafter in Odd Fellows' hall, which has been kindly offered for the use of the corps, as with the larger numbers present at the recent meetings a much larger room is needed. It is probable that the alternate meetings at Townsend will be in Masonic hall, as Birchard post has always been allowed the privilege of meeting there. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Ballou for her hospitality in the post. A reading was given by Mrs. L. W. Birch of a humorous incident in Lincoln's life, and Mrs. F. C. O'Brien read Lincoln's Tribute to a Boston Boy's Mother. The next meeting will be held in Townsend March 15. It is expected that the initiated ceremonies will be exemplified on several candidates at that time.

Damage by Stubborn Chimney Fire.

The chimney in Seymour Minard's house caught fire Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 10, about 1 o'clock while Mr. Minard was in Saxtons River. Mr. Minard rang in the telephone alarm and soon nearly every man in town was on hand, and they fought the fire about two hours before Mr. Minard reached home. Although a fire was then raging in the chimney it seemed to be safe to leave it. The chimney was watched closely upstairs and down stairs until the family had supper. Almost immediately after supper, about 7:30, it was thought best to look up stairs again, and a bedroom through which the chimney went was found to be ablaze. A telephone call was again rung and the men had a fierce fight to save the house.

The fire was raging between walls and floors, which were quickly chopped with axes, and with the aid of the extinguishers and water the place was saved. It was about 10 o'clock when the men had gone home and leave Mr. Minard to watch the rest of the night.

The damage was mostly on the house and carpets, as furniture was easily gotten out of danger. Mr. and Mrs. Minard greatly appreciate the service of all who so quickly responded to the call and worked so well to help them save their home.
